Dear Mr Swaminathan,

Thank you for your letter. I was very sorry not to have been present at the unveiling of your portrait, but I have since been to see it, and am glad that it came well in the end.

Thank you for mentioning me in Council. You were also very patient, and it was not easy for either of us with so many distractions.

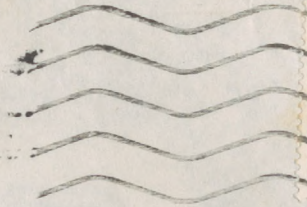

This time I travelled all over South India as far as Madorai, and also visited the famous Sai Baba. I was very impressed by him, and hope to return.

My very best wishes to your family, and if you ever come to Italy again and have time I shall be very glad to see you.

Yours very sincerely,

Ann Tudor Walters
