My dear jijaji,

Received your kind letter.

Excuse me for the long silence. My mother-in-law and sister-in-law were here and naturally I was extremely busy. Since they have gone now I do not have much work. Hereafter I will be regular in writing.

These days I am raining about in Bombay and I saw many beautiful places like Malabar Hills. I am sure you might have also visited that. I also saw two English pictures in a beautiful air conditioned theaters, and of course I am investigating different hotels in Bombay. We are also trying to furnish the flat well, but we have not got the sofa set so far. You know well that it needs some money which we may not be able to spare immediately.

I received a letter from father one week back saying that mother has gone to selhi on receiving a telegram ~~from~~ from Sivaram that pappa & child are ill. I also received a letter from papa that she is better now. It seems mother is going back to CDM by 30th and I do not know whether she has any intention of coming here or go to Alld. I am sure father might have written to you about it;

How is your health? Hope you are getting on well with your university work. Please ask Rangam to go via Bombay to Madras. I received a letter from Rabi Bhaiya <sup>or</sup> which I will reply tomorrow. Hope you all enjoyed holi well. I was feeling sorry that I could not be there. Hope Rangam & children are O.K. Pl. reply soon. With respects to you all and best wishes to Lajesh and papod & pampoo.

yours affectionally
Rajam

PS
I did not receive any letter from Rangam. Pl. tell me what I should do next.

My dear jiji,

Received your kind letter. I feel really sorry when I think that I could not be with you to help you in your paper correction. Still I am sure you will remember me while you do your work.

When is Rangam going to CDM. I may be also going in June. Why don't you allow her to go via Bombay. I wish you also come with her and you all stay with me for some days. If Rangam goes away what will be your programme? As Rambabu writes why don't you come here?

I received a letter from father two days back. Mother has gone back to CDM. They have vacated that house and Rangam has gone to MDS. I am sure father must have written to you about that.

How are children? Did Rangam receive her scholarship money? Just now I received the report. Thank you very much. How is Lafesh getting on. Nothing new

Dear Dr. Bahadur,

I am sending herewith Rs 20/- as per advice of Rajam. please acknowledge receipt of it. I am writing in detail a letter by tomorrow.

With my best wishes to all,

Yours affly,

Baldev Vishwanath

My dear Jijaji + Rangam,

In spite of my repeated request you have decided not to reply to me. I am not able to guess the reason. Have you got any orders from higher authorities that you should not write to me? Are you are angry with me? Anyway I will write to you till I am alive.

What happened to the report? Are you keeping quiet because the report is damaging and you don't want to write to me that? What I am going to do for the diploma, I do not know. Pl. find out from the office and advise me as to what I shall do.

Sombay
14 May

How is your health?

Have you finished your paper collection? How are the children. Whether I will have viva or not I will come to Alld in July. I don't know what risk to write because I am extremely disturbed by your silence. Pl. have some message or me & reply at least to this letter. Nothing more. With love to children & namaste to all my elders

Yours affly,
Rejani

My dear Jijaji & Rangam,

Received your kind letter. Excuse me for my delay in replying. S.B.K was not well and he was on leave for 15 days. He has gone to office only today. So when it will be possible for him to go to Sion he will find out the information, if possible, & let you know.

You have written in your letter that you heard that I am not well and ज्या मामला है. जो जमाना मामला ने बहुत कुछ है. किन्हीं किन्हीं न किन्हीं सम्झने में नही आ रहा है. As Pauditiji predicted about my married life everything has come true. Life is not bed of roses and it is only bed of thorns; this is what I am experiencing. I never expected I will suffer so much. But what to do. It is all my fate. At least it is a teaching to people that there is no use of compulsory marriage. You may be wondering what I mean by all these. To be very frank, we do not agree with each other and there is always quarrel and has gone to the extent of Mrs S.B.K saying he/she wants to get rid of me. I don't know what to do. I simply keep quite without replying for any of his harsh unkind words he uses to me. Let me see how long I am going to be patient. God only must give me courage for all these. This letter is a very secret one. You read it & immediately destroy it & do not even pretend you know anything about it. Otherwise my life will become hell (already it is like that only). He misunderstands all my words & actions & speaks all undesirable words. The pittiest thing is I am pregnant & at this time he wants to ~~me~~ go away. What an irony of fate! Anyway I will try my best to be here till middle of Sept. Pl. arrange my niva in July. I am extremely anxious to come here and pour out all my feelings & weep out my sorrow. See how much this unwilling marriage has affected me. I do not think I will survive long. I thought I will never let you know anything about it. But as things grow worse I want to confide some body. Pl. do not let anybody know (especially father) anything about it. My life is again going to take a turn but I will not go to anybody or trouble anybody. As soon as I get the degree & after the delivery I will go for a job & earn my head. What else I can do. I will appear in the U.P. Board exams - Pl. let me know if you come to know anything about the reports. Pl see that I come here in July. Every much want to meet you all. After reading this forget everything & don't worry about me. This is a sad story of your unfortunate sister. Don't shed even a single drop of tear for her.

How are my dear children I miss them like anything. If they are near me I will forget this world.
 Nataraj wanted to come here but unfortunately due to some unavoidable things he is going back.
 But his date will be fixed only after getting reservation. It seems again papa's child is ill. Is there anybody coming from Alld. I want to send something to you.
 Hope mother is O.K. Convey my regards to her. Hope Ravi is better. Has Ravi Balm come back.
 How is Channie? Please have some mercy on me & write to me often;
 that at least will console me to a great extent. With love to Jyeshth children & namaskarans to you all.
 In your letters I
 see your letters
 for gods sake
 outen. anything
 about my
 letter
 yours affly,
 Ravi
