Dear Prof. Krishnan,

I write this to you in the hope that you will spare your indulgence to read it carefully and do what you can to provide relief to me in a very difficult & almost-desperate situation. I turn to you for relief for obvious reasons.

I was retired from service in the Maharaja's College on my completion 55 years & in spite of my efforts to get extension of service, I am still physically fit and, as you know, intellectually too. I have a large family to support & none of my children have come of age to take up jobs. My provident fund is hopelessly inadequate for me to fulfil the responsibilities which I owe to my children towards their education.

In these circumstances I request you to lend your helping hand to me by using your vast influence to get me a job - a lecturer's job in a first-prate college & I am told there are South Indian institutions in Delhi & other northern places, or an administrative job which can absorb persons up to 60 years. I do not know if in the mind of your much farin & overas duties you can find time to do something for me. But I am emboldened by the fact of my acquaintance with you over a period which is unforgettable. I have applied to Prof. Bhopalwar on a previous occasion. Much he was personally

Very much inclined to help me at Hyderabad,
he could not - because of anti-mulki agitation there.

Hope you will kindly write to me a line in reply.
With respectful regards,

Yours sincerely,

D. Bhagavanh (M.A.)
