Dear Dr. Joshi,

How are you. Hope you would not have forgotten me. Now I am in this department trying to establish myself. I could not forget the good days I had at Bangalore, especially your association with me. Your gentle nature often made me to think that, how you could manage to be so. This letter carries with it my thanks for what all the helps you have extended to me, when I badly needed them.

How is your present job. When are you going to marry. Keep my name in your mailing list. I wish to have such a friend wherever I go.

If you happen to write to Dr. Mohan and to Dr. Dinakar please convey my wishes to them.

Vidya, Vanitha and Mrs. Pandian conveyed their wishes to you. If you happen to cross our place pay a visit to our home.

Sincerely yours,
