March 9, 1988.

My dear Dr. Swaminathan.

The National Academy of Sciences, (Allahabad) is organising a two day Workshop on "How to Sustain the Green Revolution in India". Dr. S.K. Sinha is the Convenor of the Workshop, which will be held on 22nd and 23rd April, 1988 at Allahabad. These dates have been adjusted to suit your convenience; and I am writing this formally to record the request that I had made to you to kindly inaugurate the Workshop on 22nd April. With your inaugural address based on knowledge of, and contributions to, the Green Revolution, and the agricultural scene in India as well as internationally, the tone would be set for intense, focussed, scientific deliberations of the Workshop; and I am confident that useful recommendations would emerge which would be of value nationally. The tentative programme of the Workshop as drawn by Dr. Sinha, is enclosed. I am most thankful to you for accepting our invitation.

With warm regards,

Yours sincerely,
