Dear Mr Gole

I am writing on behalf of the Oriental Bird Club to ask whether you would consider becoming the OBC's representative for India.

I recently received a letter from Taej Mundkur, who is our present representative for India. He has now left India to take up the position of Project Officer at the Asian Wetland Bureau in Kuala Lumpur. Unfortunately, he will now be unable to continue as representative, but suggested that you might be willing to take up the position instead.

I have enclosed a leaflet which describes the ways in which country representatives can assist the Club, I am sure Taej could provide you with further advice.

I very much hope that you will feel able to become a representative and I look forward to hearing from you in the near future.

Yours sincerely
