Dear Sir,

I hope your journey and your family are hale and healthy. My boy Dhruva wrote to me that he has joined the Arts class in the Anubandhu Institute and he is alright. Excuse me for being a little late in thanking you for your good service to me.
I hope he will come out successful in his career and thus justify himself in your estimate. I take this opportunity to congratulate you upon your <sup>new</sup> appointment and wish you all prospering in all your endeavours.

With kind regards,
yours sincerely,
R. D. D. D.

Dear Krishnan,

I hope and wish you are hale and quite OK. Professor Ramasami I saw yesterday at his home at Vasantnagar and he has come here for a short sojourn ~~at Madurai~~. He is somewhat improved but not quite recovered. My boy ~~Dr. Subramanian~~ <sup>I understand</sup> wrote to me on 14.7 that you were leaving for ~~Atari~~ Delhi on 15.7. to settle there permanently as the Director National Laboratory and that you advised him to return to Delhi University to which he answered in the affirmative. He adds further that you informed him that you would communicate for Delhi whether there was any seat there and that he could fix himself up afterwards. He later wound up by saying that if ~~there~~ <sup>was</sup> a seat available at Delhi he would join ~~there~~ or else report to Anahabad and join there and that his fixation at either of these places would be known in a week and then he would write to me at once. But still now I haven't received any instruction at all about his admission etc. Further I had sent him an M.O. for Rs 100/- (to cover his fees etc) to Patna but since he left Patna early for Anahabad it certainly reach him. It seems the ~~original~~ instructions to have it re-directed to Anahabad but for the letter of 14th I find that the honor receives the same. In these circumstances I am a little bit anxious in no matter but <sup>longer</sup> I feel relieved at the thought that you will look to my thing and smooth in any little difficulty that may arise re his admission ~~etc.~~ ~~The boy is young~~ ~~and~~ ~~is~~ ~~young~~ and needs your paternal guidance he may get his start. Ramesan does assume that you are there and not all feel anxious. However, may I request you to drop a letter in reply, regarding the boy's admission into the M.Sc. Msc Course and B.Li?.

with kind regards,
yours truly,
P. Dhanu
