Respected Dr Swaminathan,

Thank you so much for a very nice gift and your affectionate letter. Indeed it was such a joy to read your letter and hear all about your leadership and guidance that you are providing to DRRI. Sir I both myself and my husband have always held you in very high esteem. On many occasions we miss your guidance and motivation that you always provided. We will wait very anxiously for you to come back so that at least I may get another opportunity to work under you. If I would get an opportunity
