

THE LINNEAN SOCIETY OF LONDON

(FOUNDED 1788)

MONKOMBU SAMBASIVAN SWAMINATHAN

I have the honour to inform you that at a Meeting of the Society held yesterday you were elected a Fellow of The Linnean Society of London.

Subject to the conditions outlined in Bye-Laws, Chap. 2, Sect. 1, and in accordance with Bye-Laws, Chap. 1, Sect. 7, you should attend within six months of your election a meeting of the Society for formal admission. If you are unable to attend within six months, application will be made, at your request, to the Council for an extension of the time. It should be noted that, in accordance with Bye-Laws, Chap. 1, Sect. 10, no Fellow is entitled to vote at any Meeting of the Society until formal admission has taken place.

I enclose a copy of the Charters and Bye-Laws, a card showing the dates of Meetings of the Society during the Session, a publications' form, a copy of the Library Rules, a List of the Society and a communication giving further details and information in connection with your election to Fellowship.

Executive Secretary.
