OFFICERS MESS,
ROYAL ARMY MEDICAL CORPS,
MILLBANK, S. W. 1.

My dear Krishna Iyengar,

I owe you a thousand pardons for not writing earlier but you must be knowing the reason. I was not in a mood for anything. I feel I have no interest at all in this world - even life has become an ever increasing burden.

I was very happy to hear that recognition is coming to you sooner than expected - though it was only a question of time. I am sure this will lead at least to the Fellowship if not for something higher.

It will be a terrible pity I shall not be here to enjoy your company. I am returning immediately after finishing my course here firstly as I have no mood to stay on and secondly because I am getting a civil job in C.P. I am sailing here on the 30th Jan per S.S. Ranchi. As I hear you are sailing on the 20th Feb - it must be by the same boat.

If you happen to be in Bombay a day earlier I shall only be too happy to meet you again. As there will not be time for your reply to reach me here - a line in reply to me by P.O. Coy will be very welcome -

The exact address will be

Passenger per S.S. Ranchi arriving 99th Feb - 90 Mess Mackinnon
Mackenzie & Co - Ballard Estate Bombay -

I hope your family is doing quite well as also all of our friends in Calcutta.

With sincerest regards

Yours sincerely
Young Simin
