Dear Dr.Krishnan,

You will have read in the papers that the Sahitya Akademi has selected the book "Chakravarti Tirumagan" by Sri C.Rajagopalachari for its annual Award in Tamil. We would like to publish in the next issue of our English journal, "Indian Literature" a short article of about 1000 to 1500 words on Sri C.Rajagopalachari and his works, in particular the book which has received the award. I shall be grateful if you kindly agree to write such an article (in English) for our journal, to reach us before the end of February 1959. We shall be glad to pay a modest honorarium of Rs.50/- for the article. We shall also give you twenty reprints of the printed article. I hope you will kindly agree to do us this favour.

Yours sincerely,

K.R. Kripalani

Dear Dr. Krishnan,

We thank you for your letter of the 5th August 1959 addressed to Dr. George. Your Personal Assistant, Sri Ramachandran, has delivered your review of 'Chakravarti Thirumagan' and it has been sent to press. The proofs are expected in a day or two and as soon as they are received, they will be sent for your correction.

Please find herewith a pre-receipted bill for Rs.50/- on account of the honorarium regarding the review. Please be kind enough to sign and return it to us for payment.

We are grateful to you for doing the review even in the midst of your many engagements.

With kind regards,

Yours sincerely,

Dear Dr. Krishnan,

I am herewith sending the proofs of your review of 'Chakravarti Thirumagan' along with its original. We shall be grateful if you kindly make it convenient to go through them and return them at your earliest. Kindly also indicate whether you would like to see one more proof yourself before giving the print-order. If so, we shall be glad to arrange for it.

We will deem it as an act of kindness if you could make it possible to give priority to the proofs.

Could you kindly arrange to send us along with the proofs a short, biographical note on yourself to go in the 'Notes on Contributors'?

Thanking you and with kind regards,

Yours sincerely,

Dear Dr. Krishnan,

I thank you for your kind letter of the 14th instant and the corrected 1st proofs of your review of 'Chakravarti Thirumagan'. Corrections in these proofs have since been effected by the Press and I am herewith sending you the 2nd proofs which you may kindly check and pass with your print order.

There is one point in particular to which I should like to draw your kind attention. On line 12 of the page numbered 110 in the present proofs, you had desired that the name 'Kalki' should be italicised. But, as a matter of house-style, we normally give the names of journals and magazines within single quotation-marks. As such your press instruction has not been carried out.

As desired by you, we shall be glad to supply you 100 extra off-prints in addition to 25 we give to our contributors.

We shall be grateful if you could make it possible to return the proofs with your print-order urgently.

With kind regards,

Yours sincerely,

S. Balu Rao

My dear Dr Krishnan,

Many thanks for your kind letter dated 20th August and the enclosures. I had the pleasure of going through your article on 'Chakravarti Thirumagan' and I feel that it was well worth waiting for.

We are taking a few points from Black's "Who's Who" for our Notes on Contributors.

With regards,

Yours sincerely,

Dear Dr. Krishnan,

I am directed by Dr. George to send you herewith a copy of the latest issue of 'Indian Literature' in which your review of 'Chakravarti Tirumagan' appears. Kindly accept the same with our compliments and acknowledge receipt. Two 'rush' copies of the off-prints of your article are also enclosed and we hope that these will serve your immediate needs. The remaining copies of the off-prints, of course in a better form, will follow in due course.

Thank <sup>ing</sup> you and with kind regards,
