My dear Sir Krishnan,

I must thank you sincerely for advancing me cash which was most useful to me when the Orient airways failed me without any notice. I hope there will be no difficulty in cashing the cheque on the Dacca branch of the Imperial Bank of India. I came to Calcutta by the D. N. A. plane & reached Dacca the next day (2.6.48) by train.

I am indeed sorry that I could not spend longer with you & I am sorry also for not being able to see Dr. Vijaynagaravan. Please convey my greetings to him, if he is still in Delhi.

I have written to the Director of Communication, Civil Aviation Directorate, accepting the offer of the post of Controller of Radio Development Unit. I have now to wait for the formal sanction of the Ministry of Communication & other formalities. I hope everything will be O.K. & I shall be able to join the post at an early date.

I was extremely happy to see your eldest daughter whom we knew as a little girl ~~and~~ <sup>and</sup> also your grand-daughter.

Trust you are all right. My wife joins with me in sending you all our good wishes. Yours Sincerely,
S.P. Khastri
