Dear Mr. Krishnan,

I have just returned from America to hear from my colleague Mr. Pitchford, who visited you in New Delhi, that we may soon have the pleasure of a visit from you to our laboratory at Shoreham, and I would like to say how much I personally shall welcome the opportunity of meeting you and of showing what we are doing in the way of research and development work.

Dear Professor Ricardo,

Thank you very much for your kind letter of June 29 and for the invitation to the laboratory at Shoreham. When next I visit England, which will be sometime before the end of this year, I shall be glad to avail myself of the opportunity to meet you and to visit your laboratory.

I remember with much pleasure the visit of Mr Pitchford.

With kind regards

yours sincerely
