URGENT REMINDER.

The Editor of 'The Times of India Directory & Year Book' will be obliged if you will kindly see if the biography given below is accurate and complete, and return to us immediately for publication in the forthcoming edition of 'The Times of India Directory & Year Book'.

It is particularly requested that any corrections or additions should be made at the side of the printed biography, which should not be written out afresh.

The space allotted for each biography is 25 lines (or about 150 words). Participants are, therefore, requested kindly to revise their biographies to fit in the space allotted.

References to parentage, marriage and children have been deleted to bring the sketch in line with international practice in this respect.

It is requested that any future changes in designation, address, etc., should be communicated to the Editor so that if possible they could be incorporated into the biography before the book goes to press.

The biography should carry your signature, or of someone else authorized by you, as proof of its authenticity.

The Editor reserves the right to shorten the biography or to make suitable alterations in it or refuse publication of any biography without assigning any reason.

Date as postmark

DEAR SIR,

We enclose a proof of the biographical notice relating to yourself which appears in the INTERNATIONAL WHO'S WHO 1950. We should be grateful if you would kindly revise or correct this entry and return it to us at the above address as soon as possible. As the early pages of the 1951 edition will be going to press in September, may we stress the necessity for the prompt return of this proof. In order to avoid the possibility of inaccuracies on our part, may we suggest that names, book titles and addresses be written in block capitals, or typed.

We need hardly add that the completion and return of this form imply no obligation whatsoever.

With many thanks for your co-operation,

Yours truly,

THE SUBSCRIPTION BOOKS BULLETIN

of the American Library Association, Chicago, July 1948, says:

“. . . THE INTERNATIONAL WHO'S WHO has endeavoured since its beginning to gather in one volume biographical information about leading citizens of all countries, and from a wide variety of professions, so that searchers for material might find what facts they need without having to invest in, or search through innumerable national biographical dictionaries. Many entries are also found for people from countries which have no regular 'Who's Who' type of publication.

“. . . Many new names appear in the 1948 edition, with almost every page showing additions from many countries and also much correction of older entries. Addresses in many cases have been changed; new publications, honours, added. There have also, of course, been many deletions. A spot check of persons formerly included in THE INTERNATIONAL WHO'S WHO, who are listed in the Americana Annual necrology list, shows very thorough editorial scrutiny of the news. In the letters checked, names had been deleted for all who had died early in the year. If the death occurred too late to allow changes in page set-up, which deletion would necessitate, death dates have been added. Such dates as late as November 1947 were noted.

“. . . THE INTERNATIONAL WHO'S WHO fulfils, as well as can be expected in a one-volume work, its aims at international, up-to-date coverage. It has kept a high standard for its inclusions and revisions, and should be useful in any libraries interested in international names in the news. Librarians who make the practice of replacing biographical dictionaries only in five- to ten-year intervals should consider this edition, even though the customary period of time has not elapsed, because of the greater number of additions and corrections resulting from the post-war opening of avenues of communication closed for the war years. It is recommended.”

The foregoing extracts are from a review of the 12th edition of our International Who's Who, the 15th edition of which is now in preparation.

In view of the confusion which has arisen, particularly in the U.S.A., between our own book and other more recent publications bearing the same or a similar title, it cannot be too strongly emphasised that such works have no connection whatsoever with the International Who's Who, which has been published annually by Europa Publications in London since 1936 and has earned for itself an unrivalled position among international biographical reference works.

THE

THE TIMES OF INDIA OFFICES, BOMBAY.

The Editor of 'The Times of India Directory & Year Book' will be obliged if you will kindly see if the biography given below is accurate and complete, and return to us immediately for publication in the forthcoming edition of 'The Times of India Directory & Year Book'.

It is particularly requested that any corrections or additions should be made at the side of the printed biography, which should not be written out afresh.

The space allotted for each biography is 25 lines (or about 150 words). Participants are, therefore, requested kindly to revise their biographies to fit in the space allotted.

References to parentage, marriage and children have been deleted to bring the sketch in line with international practice in this respect.

It is requested that any future changes in designation, address, etc., should be communicated to the Editor so that if possible they could be incorporated into the biography before the book goes to press.

The biography should carry your signature, or of someone else authorized by you, as proof of its authenticity.

The Editor reserves the right to shorten the biography or to make suitable alterations in it.

WHO'S WHO

FIRST PUBLISHED IN 1849

The New Edition of "WHO'S WHO" is now in active preparation, and we shall be grateful if you will make any necessary alterations or additions on the accompanying proof and return it at once, with or without corrections.

The details required are: Full name and title; present position (with year when taken up); date of birth; parentage; marriage (year and names); number of sons and daughters living (and number deceased, if any); education; career (dates should follow events); publications (titles of books, with year; only general reference to learned journals); recreations; address; telephone number; clubs (London first, followed by others, with locations in brackets).

It should be noted that present position is placed immediately after the name and not at the end of career. When possible, future events—e.g., change of appointment, retirement, publication of books, etc.—should be anticipated in order to make the volume as up-to-date as possible. Such information is treated as strictly confidential until publication of the new edition.

PLEASE WRITE
