Dear Doctor Rao,

Your letter, dated the 14th October, 1938.

The date of the next annual convocation of the Senate has not yet been fixed. It may be held in March at the latest.

Please write to me some time in March and remit a fee of Rs. 5/- for your doctorate diploma, if you cannot attend the convocation, and it will be sent to your address.

The date of the convocation will be notified and also communicated to you in due course, and it is desirable that you should attend the convocation.

Yours faithfully,

Controller.
