

X-74

Department of Physics
UNIVERSITY OF DELHI
DELHI

22nd September, 1947

Dear Prof. Krishnan,

I am drawing up the time table of lectures for the next term. I shall feel most grateful if you could kindly make it convenient to give us a series of lectures (say about six lectures) during the next term (October to December) on any subject of your choice. I shall appreciate it very much if you could kindly inform me before the end of this month the titles of the lectures and days and time that will suit you,

Yours sincerely,

D. K. Ghosh

Nat'nal
Prof. Sir K.S.Krishnan,
Director,
Physical Laboratories,
B.S.I.R.,
Delhi.

No:0147/SA/M. of D.

New Delhi,

April 25, 1949.

My dear Prof. Krishnan,

I am indeed sorry that you could not make it convenient to attend the Defence Science Conference. We all missed you much - your presence would have been such a source of encouragement to all concerned. I do trust that it will be possible for you to attend the next Conference.

With kindest regards,

Yours sincerely,

D. S. Kothari

(D.S. Kothari)

Prof. K.S. Krishnan,
Director,
National Physical Laboratory,
Delhi University Building,
Delhi.

P.T.O.

P.S.

Some literature connected with the Conference is being sent herewith. Needless to say how much I shall value if you will favour me with any comments which, I am sure, would be of use to us in organising and arranging the programme of work for the next Conference.

Confidential

No.0105/SA/M. of D.

NEW DELHI,

March 25, 1949.

My dear Prof. Krishnan,

Professor P.M.S. Blackett has written to say that it would be convenient for him to visit India again and stay here for four weeks from about the 20th of December '49. Before confirming the dates to Prof. Blackett, I shall be grateful if you will kindly let me know whether you would be in station during this period, so that we could avail of the opportunity of having discussions with Prof. Blackett on Defence Science Organisation and other matters of interest.

With kindest regards,

Yours sincerely,

D. S. Kothari

(D.S. Kothari)

Dr. K. S. Krishnan,
National Physical Laboratory,
Delhi.

USM
31/3.

D.O. No.0147/SA/M of D.

New Delhi,
March 30, 1949.

My dear Prof. Krishnan,

Dr. K. N. Mathur has just informed me of the title of your address at the Defence Science Conference. I am grateful to you for kindly agreeing to address the Conference on "Modern Views on the Structure of Metals and Alloys". This is fixed for Thursday, the April 21, 1949, in the University of Delhi Buildings at 9.30 A.M.

I trust the date and time will suit you.

(9-30 to 10-15)

With kindest regards,

Yours sincerely,

D. S. Kothari
(D.S. Kothari)

Prof. K. S. Krishnan,
Director,
National Physical Laboratories,
Delhi.

P.S. I understand you have nominated Dr. K.N. Mathur as National Physical Laboratories representative for this Conference.