Dear Swaminathan,

I appreciated your kind letter, and have shared it with Brian.

We especially wish to thank you for your support of the colloquium, and for fostering such a rich discussion the second morning. Everyone seemed not only very pleased but inspired by it.

The Smithsonian Press has agreed to publish the proceedings. In the meantime, Brian and Neil Kotler will be preparing a report of the event that we shall of course share with you.

I was happy to meet you, and your family, and send you all my best regards.

Sincerely,

Carla M. Borden
