Dear Sir,

Please permit me to associate myself, from this distance, with the gentlemen and ladies who assemble in Bangalore to-day to express publicly their grateful rejoinsings on the happy occasion of the successful completion of three decades of earnest service to the cause of higher education in the country, by Dr. B.S. Madhava Rao. A distinguished student of our University and of Calcutta, it was given to him to serve with devotion the College which educated him for the best part of the last thirty years. Ever young in spirit, keen as a sportsman, eminent as a teacher he lived these years in the midst of devoted students and loyal Colleagues as a trusted friend of the student community in all its legitimate aspirations. Of polished and graceful manners, quick to befriend the aggrieved and slow to take offence, he was the very pink of what a gentleman ought to be in whom education lives as an influence for life.

May the years that follow be, by the kindness of the Almighty power, years of learned leisure and effective service to society by him. Such as he do not grow old. They are ever young and never fatigued. May the blessings of heaven abide with him and his!

Yours sincerely,

NEW DELHI the 19th September 1955.

Dear Sir,

This is to acknowledge your letter of 16th September, 1955, to Prof. M.S. Thacker, enclosing with it an invitation to him for the occasion of Presentation of an Address to Dr. B.S. Madhava Rao, on the 24th September, 1955, at 6 P.M. at the Government Law College, Bangalore.

Prof. Thacker is, at present, at Bangalore and is leaving for Bombay tomorrow, the 20th September, 1955. It is, therefore, very doubtful if he will be able to visit Bangalore again on 24th September, 1955. Your letter will, however, be placed before him on his return to Delhi on 22nd September.

Yours faithfully,

24th September 1955

Dear Sri Madhava Rao,

It is only in the fitness of things that the citizens of Bangalore should honour Dr. B. S. Madhava Rao, the eminent mathematician who has recently retired from being Principal of the Central College, by the presentation of an address. I have known Dr. Madhava Rao ever since he was a student in the Central College. He has been throughout a brilliant student. His mathematical attainments are very high and he has made very valuable contribution to mathematical science. So much so he is now in the very front rank of brilliant mathematicians whose work has received the commendation of professors all over the world. It is a pity that the Central College should lose the services of so eminent a savant when he still has so much work in him. I hope the University will see its way to appoint him Emeritus Professor of Mathematics so that it may not lose his services.

I very much regret that I have to deny myself the pleasure of being present on the occasion owing to prior engagement.

Wishing the function all success

I am
yours sincerely,
