Sir,

I write to state that following the receipt of the news of the passing away of Dr. K.S. Krishnan, the late Director of the National Physical Laboratory, the Director and the members of the scientific staff of this Institute assembled on the 15th instant in the evening to express their grief at the sad event. The Director spoke to the staff members of the great qualities of Dr. Krishnan as a scientist, scholar, writer, teacher and man, and the unique combination of virtues which he embodied and exemplified in himself, and of the incalculable loss that this country has suffered in his death.

In token of their grief and in paying their homage to the departed soul the assembly observed two minutes' silence.

I request you to be so good as to convey the above to the members of the National Physical Laboratory and also to the members of the family of late Dr. Krishnan.

Sir,

The officers and staff of the Indian Bureau of Mines have learnt with great regret the sad demise of Dr. K. S. Krishnan, Director, National Physical Laboratory. In a condolence meeting held in memory of Dr. Krishnan, the following resolution was passed:

"The Director, officers and staff of the Indian Bureau of Mines were grieved to learn ^{about} the sad demise of Dr. K. S. Krishnan, Director, National Physical Laboratory, New Delhi, and resolved to convey their deep sense of sorrow to Mrs. Krishnan and family, and to the National Physical Laboratory and the Council of Scientific & Industrial Research.

Yours faithfully,

S. S. S. S.
+ Director.

Shri H. R. Dewan, Director and staff of the Indian Bureau of Mines, Nagpur, met today to condole the sad demise of late Dr. K. S. Krishnan, Director of the National Physical Laboratory, New Delhi.

Shri H. R. Dewan, while expressing his deep sorrow, said that in the death of Dr. Krishnan, the country had lost an eminent scientist who had been known all over the world for his outstanding scientific researches. Besides being a scientist of world repute, the late Dr. Krishnan had combined in himself science and religion. He was also a great scholar in Tamil and Sanskrit.

Shri H. R. Dewan added that the National Physical Laboratory of India which the late Dr. Krishnan nursed right from its inception in 1947 would remain for all time a glorious tribute to the memory of this eminent scientist.

A resolution condoling the death of Dr. Krishnan was passed and the message was conveyed to the bereaved family, the National Physical Laboratory and the Council of Scientific & Industrial Research.
