Dear Dr. Swaminathan,

I thank you and your colleagues, Prof. Hu Han and Prof. Shao Qiquan; very much for the kind invitation to join the International Editorial Board of the new International Journal of Plant Genetic Manipulation.

I think this is an important initiative and would very much like to support it. However, I am presently vastly overcommitted and know I cannot devote my best efforts to such a task. I feel I can only accept your offer provided you feel it would be appropriate to accept my senior collaborator Dr. Frans J. de Bruijn as a Co-editor. He and I would then jointly fill one slot on the International Editorial Board.

Please let me know if this unorthodox proposal has any value to you.

Sincerely,

J. Schell
