Principal
Savitri Girls' College
Ajmer, Rajasthan

Dear Sudha - ji,

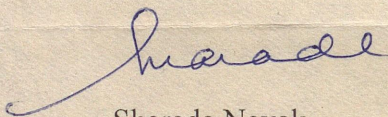

We are planning to bring out a publication incorporating articles, with photographs, of the CDI colleges to be ready by the end of the year. We have requested several writers to help us in this task.

I am writing to inform you that we have asked Mrs. Usha Rai, well known journalist, and correspondent with the Indian Express, to visit your college and do a feature for us on your CDI work. I will be very grateful if you could extend to her your cooperation, and spare the time to introduce her to the faculty and students who are involved in your CDI project to enable her to write a story for the publication. She will also bring along a photographer.

I am giving her your phone number and asking her to contact you to set up a mutually suitable date. She will probably plan on a visit in the latter half of August. Her address and phone number are given below.

With kind regards,

Yours sincerely,

Sharada Nayak
