

Ville d'Avray, 27th March 1947

Henri Corbière, of the "Société des Gens de Lettres de France", has the honour to beg Mr. Kariananirvan Srinavasa Krishnan, President National Academy of Sciences, India, to have the kindness to affix an answer on the herewith paper. This paper will be enclosed in his book entitled: "Literary and Scientific 'debut' of the Scientists and Writers of the whole world". He has already received the answers of Messrs:

Sir Shanti Bhatnagar, Sir Sarvepalli Radhakrishnan, of India; Sir David Rivett, Prof. E. J. Hartung, of the Royal Society of Australia;

Dr. E. Marsden, etc, of the Royal Society of New Zealand;

Sir Robert Robinson, Sir Robert
Watson Watt, Sir Charles Darwin,
Sir Alexander Fleming, Sir
Joseph Barcroft, Sir Edward
Trailey, Prof. Frederick Soddy,
Prof. John D. Bernal, J. D. Cockcroft,
Sydney Chapman, etc, of the Royal Society of England;

Arthur H. Compton, Paul
E. Compton, Robert A. Millikan,
Richard C. Tolman, Samuel
K. Allison, Carl D. Anderson,
Arthur J. Dempster, Harold C. Urey,
James B. Conant, George B.
Kistiakowsky, Frank B. Jewett,
William Coolidge, etc, of the National Academy of Sciences, of U. S. A.;

Prince Louis de Broglie, Duc
Maurice de Broglie, Prof. Frédéric
Joliot-Curie, Paul Langerin,
Paul Pascal, Jean Cabannes,
Jean Becquerel, Gaston Ramon,
Prof Hyacinthe Vincent,
Maurice Caullery, etc, of the French Academy of Sciences;
Theodor Svedberg, etc, of the Swedish Academy of sciences, etc.

Very sincerely yours.

Henri Corbière

address:

Henri Corbière

9 rue Pradier

Ville d'AVRAY

(Seine-et-Oise)

France

P.S. - Please to join the list of members of National Academy of Sciences, India.

H. C.