Dear Dr. Joshi,

Subject: Regional Workshop on Statistical Methods for Ecologists,
Pune, India, 9 - 21 January 1995

I am pleased to inform you that this Office is organizing a Regional Workshop on Statistical Methods for Ecologists, jointly with the Department of Statistics, University of Poona, Pune. This Workshop will be held at Pune, India, from 9 - 21 January 1995.

The main objectives of this Workshop are to a) familiarize the participants with some frequently used statistical techniques in analysing ecological data, b) introduce some easily available user-friendly packages of computer programs with minimal hardware requirements, c) impart a critical view of the role of quantitative analysis in ecological research through presentations of case studies, and d) conduct discussions on specific research problems of participants. A copy of the 'General Information Note' is attached herewith, for your information.

I have great pleasure in inviting you to this Workshop in view of your competence in the areas to be reviewed. It has been suggested by the Workshop Director, Dr. A. P. Gore, that we request you to speak on the following two topics:

Tuesday, 17 January 1995

- i) Putting a Conservation Value on Species.
(08:30 hours - 09:30 hours).

Wednesday, 18 January 1995

- ii) Game Theory in Ecology.
(11:00 hours - 12:00 hours).

Dr. N. V. Joshi,
Centre for Ecological Sciences,
Indian Institute of Science,
Bangalore.

Dr. N. V. Joshi, IIS, Bangalore.

Should you, however, prefer to speak on another related topic, I would suggest that this may be done in consultation with Dr. Gore, with a copy to us, for information.

UNESCO would be happy to provide you with an economy-class return airticket, free board and lodging and a small honorarium for your participation in this Workshop.

I should be most grateful if you could confirm your participation to us, with a copy to Dr. Gore, at your earliest convenience. This Office will arrange for your travel etc. and will also inform you of other related arrangements pertaining to your participation, nearer the time of the Workshop.

With kind regards,

Yours sincerely,

John V. Kingston
Director & UNESCO Representative to India

Dear Dr. Joshi,

Subject: Regional Workshop on Statistical Methods for Ecologists,
Pune, 9 - 21 January 1995

I am indeed very pleased that you will be able to participate in the Regional Workshop on Statistical Methods for Ecologists, which will be held at Pune from 9 - 21 January 1995.

I trust that you must have already received from Dr. A. P. Gore, Department of Statistics, University of Poona, Pune, the detailed academic programme for the above Workshop. In regard to your travel to Pune and back, a PTA is being sent to Thomas Cook, India (70 Mahatma Gandhi Road, Bangalore), by their Office in Delhi, to provide you with an economy-class airticket for Bangalore/Pune/Bangalore. We have suggested the following schedule for your travel : :

Bangalore/Pune	16 January'95	IC 917	Dep. 1150/1310
Pune/Bangalore	19 January'95	NEPC	Dep. 1320/1525

If the above dates or flights are not convenient, please get in touch with Thomas Cook, Telephone No. 587147/588028.

Please confirm, in due course, your flight details to Dr. Gore, so that you may be met at the airport upon arrival. Accommodation has been booked for you at Hotel Pride Executive.

Thank you for your participation in the above Workshop.

With kind regards,

Yours sincerely,
