My dear Rangam,

Father instructs me to send you a draft for Rs 500/- to cover your expenses for the journey from Allahabad to Chudambaram. Hope it will be possible for you ^{all} to come here. Father says that you can book your things to Bombay, come here, stay a few days and then go direct to Bombay. You can get sarees and stitch dresses for children if you come early enough and find it possible to stay for a few days. I trust you would have submitted your thesis by this time.

Here, we are all doing well. I am sure you had some nice time with Papa. I can imagine her making quite a few complaints against me.

How is brother-in-law? Hope he is very busy in getting ready. Please convey my regards to him. I am very glad that I will be able to see you all soon. With regards to you & br-in-law & love to children

Yours affly
Natarajan/
