Dear Sir,

I have sent you the first issue of my monthly and I will be shortly sending you my second issue.

I am requesting you again for a small article.

I am making the January issue a special issue, and devoting a few pages to your friend philosopher and guide Sir C. V. Raman. Can you write an intimate portrait of Raman in English or Tamil for me. Please make it highly personal and full of anecdotes.

Can you kindly let me know when you are likely to send this to me. It would be very helpful if you can send it by the 15th of Dec'r.

Thanking you,

Yours very truly,

V. Subramaniam

Dear Sir,

I am making my request, once again or rather reminding you of it. I am sending by separate book <sup>-part</sup> the second issue of my monthly, and I hope it will address my request, by its get up and contents.

I am asking <sup>you</sup> to write an intimate personal portrait of C. V. Raman - as you knew him - and your personal evaluation of him as a man & as a Scientist. You can do it in English or Tamil as you please. Kindly send it to my Madras address, where I will stay for the next fortnight, i.e. "V. Subramanian. H.A. 1/3 Venkatachala Naik Street, Washermanpet P.O. Madras. 24." I want to use it for the special January issue (Angul malar) and it would be very helpful if you can send it by the 25th or 26th December.

Thanking you,
Yours very truly,
V. Subramanian

Dear Sir,

I am making my pressing request to you again - (in fact in utter desperate exhaustion)

I hope you would have been convinced by now that my little venture is worthy of your kindest consideration.

I am repeating my request. Can you do an account of Raman. Your friend Philosopher and guide - as you knew him - and in that - capture the fateful moments before and after the great discovery in Bow bazaar street by Raman. Please do so - you may do it in English just to do it in a short time - and kindly send it very early. I will be particularly thankful if you can send it in two or three days to the above <sup>Madras</sup> address.

Thank you,
Yours sincerely,
V. Subramaniam
