Bombay, 19th August, 1939.

Dear Dr. Madhava Rao,

My wife and I thank you and Mrs. Rao most sincerely for your kind hospitality. We were extremely glad to have had the opportunity of seeing your beautiful garden; and we hope you will remember to send us ^{such} ~~any~~ odds and ends as may be available. We shall also be glad to send you anything you want from Calcutta.

I hope you will take an active interest in the next session of the Statistical Conference which will be held in Madras and Mysore in January 1940.

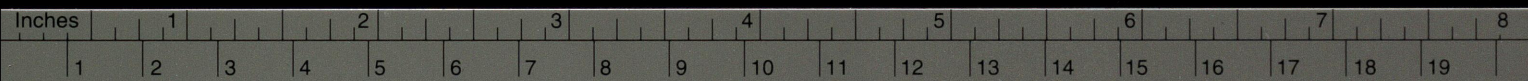

Yours sincerely,

(P. C. Mahalanobis)
