Dear Usha,

This letter might come as a bit of a surprise to you. I write primarily to ask a favour. I have recently come across the following citation of a paper on Sikkim birds, of which I would like a copy. It is a very old reference. Do you think you could get hold of a copy (photocopied, of course) for me, and bill me the charges ?

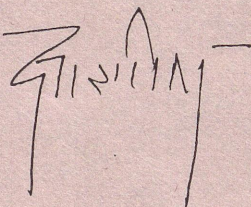

"Waddell, L.A. (1894): A list of Sikkim birds, showing their geographical distribution. Pp. 198-234 in Anon. The Gazetteer of Sikkim. Calcutta: Bengal Secretariat Press."

This is for Part II of the Bibliographic Index To The Ornithology Of The Indian Region - Part I, which I am working on now, and which I hope to bring out by the end of this year.

If there is anything I could do for you here, please do not hesitate to write.

Thanking You

Yours sincerely

Dear Usha,

I cannot thank you enough for the photocopy from the Sikkim Gazetteer which you have sent so promptly and willingly.

I will certainly inform you when Part II of the Bibliographic Index comes out. I am working to bring it out by November 96, in time for a release in the Pan-Asian conference in Bangalore. I hope I can make it !

Thanking You once again and with best wishes,

Yours sincerely
