Merstham 209.

Dear Kershman
My wife & I send you our greeting. Every good wishes for the coming year.
The Times are out of joint but we hope you are continuing to find satisfaction & enjoyment in your work & that the Science Institute is providing you with the facilities & opportunity you need.

Some time ago I sent my congratulations on your admission to the Fellowship of the Royal Socety. I hope my letter actured; but in case it was not, be sure to send them again now. The news gives me very great satisfaction.

With very kind regards
I remain
Yours sincerely

My dear Gentlemen

My wife & I send you our very kind remembrances and say you are very good work for the coming year. We hope you are enjoying your work in Allahabad finding there the opportunities you need. I shall always be interested in hearing from you something of the work in which you are engaged.
I am looking forward to meeting J. C. Brock again. He is due in Long land in October.

Yours ever
Yours sincerely,
Dunbar.
