Dear Karthik,

I've gone through the booklet you so generously presented me in Hyderabad. It is a very useful compilation. I give some suggestions below.

1. An index would have been very useful.
2. Since this is mainly a checklist, a complete scientific name with the author and year should have been given.
3. A status for each taxon would have made the lists very very useful and valuable.
4. A map of Bangalore city with important natural history areas and a general map of India showing Bangalore, would have been nice.

Best wishes and regards!
