Dear Aasheesh,

Thank you for your letter of 20th March which I will include in the coming issue.

Incidentally, Laeeq is very impressed with your letter paper and the type used. She has been very disappointed with whatever letterheads I have been producing for her. Would it be too much of a problem for you to get your printer to produce a couple of 100 sheets for her? If you can have a proof sent I would be most grateful, and of course I will pay all the charges.

Please don't put yourself out too much. We will be leaving for Bombay on 10th April and will be away till the end of May, so there is really no great hurry.

Yours sincerely,

Zafar Futehally

Dear Mr. Futehally,

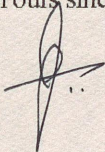

I am sorry that the contents of this letter have taken so long to reach you, but the circumstances have been such, since I received your letter about 2 months ago ! My friend, who does the printing jobs for me, was away in Australia for some time. I hope you do not mind the delay.

I enclose a few fonts and compositions for a letterhead, and some samples of letter papers. Please tick the style chosen by Mrs. Futehally, mentioning whether the name should be aligned to left margin, right margin or centered. Also indicate the location of the address on the page. Should it be in a single line at the top, below the centered name, or at the bottom, below a line, or in the form of a paragraph, in the top right hand corner.

Also, how many sheets would you like printed and on what size of paper ? You need return only that sample sheet which you select, & the fonts sample paper.

With best wishes and warm regards to you and Mrs. Futehally,

Yours sincerely

Dear Ashesh,

I believe Zafar asked you to get letter heads printed for me - on his behalf I apologize for giving you so much trouble. And on my own behalf, I thank you for taking all that trouble, and sending such attractive samples. However, as you see, the letter heads have got printed - kindness of Shridhas - Once more, thank you very much indeed for your trouble - I hope we will see you and your wife in Bangalore soon.

Best wishes,
Yours Laeq
