

16. July 89

my dear Panda,

perhaps it hurts you, when you get now this card. To see, that other people, your friends are getting married and you are involved in divorce. Isn't the world crazy? Life and death, happiness and sadness so close together!

How are you now? Erwin + me are thinking often at you. How was it at the court? Thank you very much for your letter from May 18. Did I tell you about the house where I was for one year in the mountains. There we'll have our feast and wedding ceremony. Now we are busy with preparing and arranging everything. We are doing it ourselves with the help of friends. The family is not the main-organisor. I hope to tell you once, how everything was. Emotionally it is a big stress, Unsere Adresse: but lovely. We enjoy it.

Dear Panda we wish you still much courage to carry your situation and to be soon happy again.

Yesterday I saw a very good Indian film by Jahn Bana / Assam. Do you know him? I was impressed!
