

(Camp) Karai Kund
245/47.

Dear Sir,
I beg to introduce myself as the Mathematics Assistant, Hindu High School, Sri Villiputtur, introduced to you by the correspondence of the school Sri. T. A. Srinivasan Aranganam. You may remember that you were kind enough to write to Fr. Severin about my son, Sankar, a Subramanian for the post of a water boy in St. Joseph's.
No reply has yet been received.

Meanwhile my friend
Mr. K. Ramaswami, Auditor Karai Kund, has an interest in my son further and has promised to speak to one Mr. V. R. Ramaswami M.Sc.
of Panagal, a rich man.
My friend told me that he is also your student and that your words were

Carry weight: therefore I request you to be kind enough to write to Mr.
V. K. Ramanathan M. Sc.
Puduvayal
Ramanad District
S. India,

and also be good enough
to write to me to the following address.

M. Subhadra Devi B. A. B. T.

[Malkatu Assistant
Hindu High School]

22. North Car Street
Sivillipattur
(S. I. Ry)

Begging to be excused for the trouble.
with my best respects,

to you,
Dear Sir,
your sincerely
Subhadra Devi

P. 3.

Mr. V. K. Ramaswami is an earnest & in the en courage ment of really bright and deserving boys. He is already awarding one Scholarship to one poor student in the re commendation of my friend who is his Auditor. R. S. M. M. M.

22, Curzon Road,
New Delhi,
June 5, 1947.

Dear Mr. Subbaraman,

Herewith I am enclosing a letter to Ramanathan as desired.

Yours sincerely,

To

N. Subbaraman, Esq., B.A., L.T., Mathematics Assistant,
Hindu High School,
22, North Car Street,
Srivilliputtur. S.I.Ry.

22, Curzon Road,
XXXXXXXXXXXXXXXXXX
New Delhi, June 5, 47.

My dear Ramanathan,

The Mathematics Assistant from Hindu High School Srivilliputtur wishes me to press the claims of his son, who, I understand, is a promising young boy, for a scholarship at your disposal.

The father is too poor to educate his son and any help that you may be able to give him will be very much appreciated. I am told that this is a very deserving case.

With kind regards,

Yours sincerely,

To

V.R.Ramanathan, Esq., M.Sc., Puduvayal,
Rammad Dist. S.I.