Dear Sir,

I would like to recommend Ms Sonali Phadke for admission to the Conservation Biology Course at Eastern Himalayan Region being organized by ATREE. Though formally trained as an engineer, She has shown excellent aptitude in learning biology and is a keen student of environmental issues. She has successfully completed our one-year certificate course in sustainable Management of Natural Resources and Conservation and is quite familiar with different eco-systems such as forest, grassland, marine and mountains. She has trekked in the Himalaya and observed wildlife in various sanctuaries and national parks and is keen to pursue serious studies of the fauna. She has a flair for writing and is helping us in preparing notes on various issues concerning conservation of nature. I am sure she will be a conscientious and hard-working student if admitted to this course. I strongly recommend her.
