

Paris, 3 rue Auguste-Comte 7.5.37

Dear Mr. Krishnan,

We shall be very happy, my husband and I, to make your acquaintance in Paris. Unfortunately I will not be able, as I should have liked to put myself entirely at your disposal during your stay, as I am suffering from an attack of asthma which makes me rather an invalid for the time being. But I hope you will call me on the 'phone as soon as you arrive, so that we can arrange a meeting.

We have secured a room with bath for you at a good and quiet and not expensive hotel not far from the Sorbonne, the "Royal Condé", 10 rue de Condé. Several of our friends stayed there and were very satisfied, so I hope you will be quite comfortable.

We have good news of our son, he has left Princeton for Mexico this week, and will return to Paris in a month or two.

Hoping to see you soon,
I remain

Yours very sincerely
J. Weil
