S i r,

With reference to your above quoted letter I write to inform that the registered letter containing a watch is not intended to be imported in U.K.

Dr. K. S. Krishnan, to whom it is addressed, is flying to Bombay on Tuesday the 20th September by Air India International Flight 102, leaving London Airport at about 11 a.m. I therefore request that the said parcel be delivered to him on board the plane.

Thanking you,

I am
Sir,
Your most obedient servant

Dear Dr. Krishnan,

I hope you had a comfortable journey back ~~to India~~ home and are now busy with the affairs of the laboratory. I am writing this to inform you that as desired by you I have handed over your watch to a representative whom Dr. A.R. Verma sent to my office.

Dr. Verma will bring the watch with him on the 27th when he leaves for Bombay.

With best regards,

Yours sincerely,

(S. Krishna.)
