Dear Mr. Whitehouse,

I was given your address by Mr. Krys Kazmierczak, when he was here early this year. He handed it to me when I asked him about the responsibilities (for need of a better word) of foreign birdwatchers visiting the Indian region, towards the local birdwatching groups, individuals, societies, etc.

With so many foreign birders coming to India and enjoying their birding here, I feel that something of what they take back and publish, should also be shared with Indian birdwatchers. It is just an idea which I hope you will give some thought to.

I am enclosing a copy of our birding society's newsletter MAYURA for your files.

With best wishes,

encl: as above.
