My dear Krishnan,

In my letter of yesterday, I committed a blunder in writing the Tamil word (I mean the 2nd letter of the word) the word itself does not correctly convey what I meant to im-cake. You may laugh at the failings of an old fellow!

If you are coming to Madras shortly, I shall be glad to meet you.

You will be glad to know that Watrap has had copious rainfall this year without any damage.

With kind regards,
Yours affly,
V. Sundararaman
