Dear Sir,

The International Institute of Intellectual Cooperation begs to inform you that it is carrying on its activities during the present circumstances, and trusts that it may rely on your valuable collaboration.

Since the Institute will continue its work from Paris we should be obliged if you would address all communications to: 2, rue de Montpensier, Palais-Royal, Paris 1<sup>er</sup>.

Should any change of address be made in the future, the new address will be notified to you without delay.

Yours sincerely,

Director
