Dear Dr. Rahmani,

I have your letter dated 20 April, 1992. The detailed report covering all aspects of the research activities at Jaisalmer that Dr Samant and you asked me to prepare is well under progress. I will submit it to Dr Samant as soon as it is ready.

I am unsure as to who told you that I am accompanying a wildlife tourist party to some important sanctuaries. Unfortunately, such opportunities do not seem to be a part of my lot. I am not accompanying anybody on any tour. I will be spending my Earned Leave in Madras.

On both the 10 & 11 of April 1992, I had clearly told you what my research aspirations were. As these were unacceptable to you, I gave you my resignation letter on 11 April 1992. Since our stands have not changed, I think that your present letter is redundant. As far as I am concerned the matter is closed and do not wish to correspond with you in this regard.

Yours sincerely

Ravi Sankaran
