My Dear Doctor,

I have been picturing you in the South ever since the clouds showed the Scientists of India where they stood, as the <sup>waves</sup> ocean showed King Kanute long ago where he stood! But yesterday - (16th) I received the invitation for your daughter's marriage, posted on the 11th with Mr Anantacharya's writing. I offer the best wishes for the happy married life of your daughter and son-in-law!

I have secured a copy of Mahacharya's "Sardidya-vijaya," and meant to bring it to you. But there has been no meeting of the Social Sciences and General Administration Sub-Committee of Hindi since 5 months, or perhaps I have been dropped out!

Thanks to Radhakrishnan and the Smartha and Iyer clique, the Ministries <sup>at Delhi</sup> know only Raghavan & Dasgupta in the South!

I trust you are well, and with best wishes remain yours sincerely

G. R. Josyer
