Dear Dr. Joshi Sir,

You sent an e-mail letter to me in the last January, when I sent a copy of a book on cricket-evaluation, written by me. In the letter you promised me that you would go through the book and send a more detailed mail.

But no letter is sent.

I hope you have examined the book. I request you to give your valuable opinion on various matters put forward in the book as well as help me in getting recognition to the ideas present in the book, if you consider it is worthy of getting recognized.

Yours sincerely,

K. Pradeep
