

16.12.46.

Sri and Eminent Prof.,

When I had the pleasure of meeting you last in Paris in Sept. I had spoken to you about the organisation of a Magnetochemical Colloquium in Paris in '47.

Prof. Pascal and myself, who am his assistant, have been entrusted with this organisation. We shall be very glad if you accept to take part in this colloquium, in which Scientists of the whole world will take part. It will last for one week and shall be sometime in ~~July~~ June. The object of this early unofficial contact is to ^{set up} the no. of participants and to enable the C.V.S.R. to send you rapidly the official invitation. We hope it would be possible for you to accept this invitation, and we request you to believe that most eminent professor our gratitude.....

P.S.

I would be thankful to you for telling me if it does not inconvenience you as to which is the most practical means of travelling from Allahabad to Karachi, and the cost of such journey, from where the aeroplane of France will take you to Paris.